Plum Grove Inc. Donates T-shirt Proceeds To Support Local Charities

Plum Grove Inc., donates to Greater Chicago Food Depository and the American Red Cross to combat the impact of Covid-19 on the community

Hoffman Estates, IL • January 7, 2021 - In its continued effort to support local businesses and the community during the Covid-19 pandemic, Plum Grove Inc., has announced the donation of the proceeds for more than 180 Coronavirus t-shirts to the Greater Chicago Food Depository and the American Red Cross.

Plum Grove supports the Greater Chicago Food Depository mission to end hunger. During the pandemic, the non-profit organization took an active role in the fight against Covid-19, by prioritizing the health and safety of the community with extra precautions as well as meeting the increased demands for food.

Plum Grove also supports the American Red Cross. For more than 130 years, the American Red Cross has been providing services to members of the American armed forces and their families, as well as providing disaster relief in the United States and around the world.

Besides financial donations, Plum Grove has created a broad range of pandemic-related
